

Universität
Zürich^{UZH}

One Health Institute

OHI! One Health Interactive

Seminar for curious non-experts and scientists alike!

Monday, 14 September 2026, 18:00-19:45

Critical Care Across Species: Human and Veterinary ICU Perspectives in One Health

University main building, KOL-G-217 EV, Rämistrasse 71, 8006 Zürich

Want to know what "One Health" is?

Interactive seminar series shining a spotlight on One Health research

The One Health Institute presents an interactive seminar series with international speakers, offering exciting insights into One Health, designed for curious non-experts and scientists alike.

What can you expect?

Renowned experts will present research questions or scenarios in a stimulating way, including complementary or contrasting perspectives while actively involving the audience.

– Monday, 14 September 2026, 18:00-19:45

University main building, KOL-G-217 EV, Rämistrasse 71, 8006 Zürich

Critical Care Across Species: Human and Veterinary ICU Perspectives in One Health

Prof. Johan Schoeman (Univ. of Pretoria, Companion Animal Clinical Studies)

Prof. Matthias Hilty (USZ, Institute of Intensive Care Medicine)

Moderator: Prof. em. Max Gassmann (UZH, Inst. of Veterinary Physiology)

Please register on the website. All seminars will be livestreamed.

Stay up to date on One Health and related events by the One Health Institute!

